

FAVORS ADDITIONAL ENTRANCES TO PARK

Mt. Pleasant Citizens' Association Has Plans to Popularize Rock Creek.

Rock Creek Park is not meeting the needs it was designed to fill. "It is a rich man's park, which the poor man finds difficult to enter."

The authorities who have had Rock Creek Park in charge have not been awake to all the possibilities of the park.

There were some of the expressions of opinion heard at last night's meeting of the Mount Pleasant Citizens' Association. As a result of remarks made by B. W. Holman, Edgar Rogers, Dr. Dwight Marsh and others, who demanded more entrances to the park, a committee was appointed to take up the matter with the District Commissioners.

One member of the association in speaking of the park said: "The poor man can get in the park at either end, and if his legs hold out, he can walk through. It is an automobile park, but in of little use to the general public. The general discussion of the subject by the association showed that a large number of its members believed there should be many entrances to the park and that it should be thrown open to the public literally as well as figuratively."

Another feature of the citizens' meeting was the address of G. Governor Dowe, editor of The Federalist, who pleaded for more civic pride and activity among Washingtonians.

Richard B. Watrus, president of the American Civic Association, followed Mr. Dowe, saying that a great deal had been accomplished by the local form of government, and that Washington in many ways forms a perfect and beautiful pattern which other cities might profitably copy. He referred in particular to lighting and paving systems of the city.

Dr. Louis F. Thomas moved that the Commissioners be asked to keep Sixteenth street sprinkled so as to keep down the dust, and the association decided to make the request. The committee on schools urged that the Board of Education be called upon to provide additional schools, either by means of portable schools or private houses, to accommodate the children in Mt. Pleasant, who now have only half-day sessions because of congestion and overflow at the Johnson and Powell schools.

ASKS LEGISLATION TO CUT DOWN BERIBERI

Dr. Victor G. Heiser Wants Laws in Philippines Against Polished Rice.

Legislation to discourage the consumption of polished rice, responsible for the constant increase of beriberi in the Archipelago, is recommended by Dr. Victor G. Heiser, director of health in the Philippines. In his annual report to the Secretary of the Interior, Dr. Heiser believes such legislation would result in the saving of many thousands of adult lives and bring about a great reduction in infant mortality in the east.

His report shows that beriberi and tuberculosis are the leading causes of death in the Philippines. The report for the first three months of this year shows an increase of more than ten deaths from beriberi per month over the corresponding period last year. Dr. Heiser says no case of bilious plague have been discovered in the Philippines since September 12, 1911. He attributes the eradication of the plague to the slaughter of 30,000 rats by inhabitants, the ratproofing of thousands of homes, and the drawing of millions of plague-bearing rats in dumps.

General health conditions throughout the islands are excellent, according to Dr. Heiser, and sanitary conditions are improving rapidly. His report shows that all diseases except beriberi and tuberculosis are on the decrease.

Policeman Bassford Is Injured in Fall

Policeman Joseph T. Bassford, of the Second precinct, is at Garfield Hospital today suffering from injuries to his legs and body, received when he fell into an excavation beside the car tracks at Eleventh and Euclid streets northwest.

The accident happened at 2:30 o'clock this morning, when Bassford, on his way home, alighted from a car. He was taken to the hospital in the automobile of the Eleventh precinct.

His hurts are not regarded as serious.

Page Will Remain.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—"I have not resigned nor taken any action which would justify such a report," said American Ambassador Page last night, denying a story that he had offered his resignation.

Former Governor of Canada Is Coming

Marquis of Aberdeen Will Attend Civic Association Convention Here in December.

The Marquis of Aberdeen, former governor general of Canada, and Lady Aberdeen will be among the distinguished visitors to Washington on December 23, next, when the American Civic Association will meet in this city to hold its sixth annual convention.

News of the acceptance of the invitation tendered by the association comes from Boston, where Richard B. Watrus, its secretary, had a personal interview with Lord Aberdeen, who arrived in America a few days ago to make an extended visit to the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

The convention of the association will last for three days, and during that time it will meet jointly with the American Scientific Congress, which opens here December 27 for a three weeks' session.

CITIZENS' FEDERATION TO VOTE ON CHANGES

Constitutional Amendments, to Make Body More Representative, Coming Up.

Radical changes in the methods of the Federation of Citizens' Associations, designed to make that body more truly representative of the residents of Washington, will be voted on at a constitutional amendment meeting at the December meeting. President Edward F. Coladay suggested the changes at the meeting in the Chamber of Commerce last night.

One proposal is to have the federation meet twice a month from January to April, when Congress is in session, in order that the House and Senate committees may be kept fully advised as to the federation's position on any bill affecting the District.

Mr. Coladay further believes that copies of every resolution passed by a constituent citizens' association should be sent to every delegate to the federation prior to the meeting at which it will be voted on, so that the delegates will know in advance of every federation meeting just what is coming up for discussion and action. This plan will allow delegates to get instructions from their associations as to how they should vote.

In addition to voting on the proposed amendments, it is probable that the Federation will, at its December meeting, vote on the question of prohibition in the District. A warm discussion followed the bringing up of the prohibition question last night, some of the delegates present insisting that there had been an intentional delay in getting instructions on how to vote on that question.

After considerable talk, it was decided to put the question to a vote two months hence, and in the meantime to instruct its delegates, in order that the resulting ballot may be truly representative of the sentiment in the District.

The first regular fall meeting of the Federation will be held at the Chamber of Commerce, November 6, when officers will be elected and the winter program discussed.

SENATOR LEE SPEAKS AT ORPHANAGE FETE

Games and Dances Are Features of Hundredth Anniversary Celebration.

Games and dances by 130 girls and boys in costume and an address by Senator Blair Lee, of Maryland, were the principal features of the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Washington City Orphan Asylum, held yesterday at Fourteenth and F streets northwest.

Gray skies and a murky atmosphere did not seem to dampen the number of guests nor to dampen the spirits of the children, who went through the evolution of drills and folk dances while the mists gathered like small diamonds on their hair and fantastic dresses.

Senator Lee paid tribute to Mrs. Mary L. Squiers, who has been superintendent of the asylum for eighteen years, and said the present management of the institution compared most favorably with the high-spirited men and women who organized the home in October, 1815.

The drill in the yard of the asylum followed the address of Senator Lee, after which a buffet luncheon was served indoors.
